Join The Fight Against Gravity

Our sport of skydiving has met the toughest enemy we have ever faced. Worse than government regulation, worse than the high price of lift tickets, and worse than super-tight main containers. The perennial enemy of the sport is gravity.

Gravity kills more skydivers than guns or automobiles. Gravity is one law we can do without. Just say "no" to gravity.

Dan Poynter is past president of the Parachute Industry Association, past chairman of the Board of the U.S. Parachute Association, past president of the International Hang Gliding Commission and is a trustee of the National Skydiving Museum. He has written more than 120 books; ten on parachutes, skydiving and hang gliding. A pilot, skydiver and master parachute rigger, this Certified Speaking Professional (CSP) is a frequent speaker at aviation and other events.
